And he who would the Father seek, Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee.
Thou art the Truth, Thy word, True wisdom can impart;
Thou canst inform the mind and purify the heart.
Thou art the Life, the rending tomb Proclaims Thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in Thee Nor death, nor hell shall harm.
Thou art the Way, the Truth and the Life; Grant us that way to know,
That truth to keep, that life to win, Whose joys eternal flow.

The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom then shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid?
When the wicked even mine enemies and my foes came upon me, to eat up my flesh; They stumbled and fell.
Though a host of men be laid against me, Yet shall not my heart be afraid;
And though there rose up war against me, Yet will I put my trust in Him.
Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee; Have mercy upon me and hear me;
Thou hast been my succor, Leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
O tarry thou the Lord's leisure, be strong and he shall comfort thine heart! Amen.

And in God's house for evermore, My dwelling place shall be. Amen.

ORGAN RECITAL

On Sunday afternoon, October 5, at 4:00 o'clock, Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the University Chapel. The program follows:

Dietrich Buxtehude (1632-1707)

Toccata and Fugue in F Major

Buxtehude, who influenced Bach to a great degree, is considered the real creator of the North German Toccata. Here we find the extended passage work, alternating with bold chords and a certain angularity of theme, characteristic of his works.

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

Chorale Preludes

VII. O God, Thou Faithful God

VIII. Behold, A Rose Is Blooming

V. Deck Thyself, My Soul

VI. Blessed Are Ye Faithful Souls

Brahms wrote Eleven Chorale Preludes for Organ, Opus 122, at Ischl, in Upper Austria, during the last summer of his life. He composed them in memory of his most faithful friend, Clara Schumann. The Preludes also are a revealing document of Brahms' thoughts on his own life and of his impending death. Although these Preludes are somber, they have a warm autumnal quality that is all Brahms' own.

Dietrich Buxtehude

Chorale Prelude

"How Brightly Shines the Morning Star"

"How Brightly Shines the Morning Star" is the best known of the Epiphany hymns. Developed in the form of variations by Buxtehude, it becomes one of the most imaginative works of the pre-Bach period. In one section the shining star is represented by the use of a single stop with tremolo.

Johannes Brahms

Chorale Preludes

IX. My Heart Is Filled With Longing
(1st Setting)

X. My Heart Is Filled With Longing
(2nd Setting)

XI. O World, I Now Must Leave Thee

Walter Niemann, who wrote a biography of Brahms, points out that most of these Preludes deal with "last things." He says, "They are a farewell to this world which is, after all, so fair." The dissolving double echoes of the last Prelude, so simple and so striking, are Brahms' musical valediction.

The translated text of his last chorale, No. XI, is printed below:

O world, I now must leave thee,
And go my lonely journey to my eternal home.
I faithfully and humbly commit my soul and body
Into the Lord's all loving hand.

Dietrich Buxtehude

Prelude and Fugue in G minor

The theme of this prelude is used as a Basso continuo. A short fugue on the same subject with slight variation follows. The third section is quite gay in style. The work closes with a poignant theme, developed as a second fugue, with a brilliant coda at its close.

The next organ recital in the Duke University Chapel will be presented on Sunday afternoon, November 2, 1952, at 4:00 o'clock. Mrs. Hendrix will be assisted by a string quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Alden, Mrs. Julia W. Mneller and Dr. Ernst Peschel, in the performance of seven Mozart Sonatas for Organ and Strings. Selections from the works of Handel and Bach will be presented as Organ solos.

INTERNATIONAL TEA

An International Tea, honoring students from other countries, will be held Sunday afternoon, October 5, from 4:00 to 5:30 o'clock in the Ark, East Campus. This event is sponsored by the Student Religious Council, but all members of the University community are cordially invited to attend.

FINAL EXAMINATIONS FOR THE PH.D. DEGREE

The final examination of Mr. Walter Taylor Revely for the Ph.D. degree in Religion will be held in the Conference Room of the Library at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, October 6, 1952. The subject of Mr. Revely's dissertation is "A Christian Critique of Modern Liberal Democratic Theory as Reflected in the Writings of Jacques Maritain, A. D. Lindsay and Reinhold Niebuhr." The committee to conduct the examination consists of Professors Waldo Beach, Chairman, R. E. Cushman, R. C. Petry, H. Shelton Smith, and John H. Hallowell. Professor Howard E. Jensen will preside.

- Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Miss Mary Jennings
Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high, and look about toward the east.
And behold thy children gather'd from the west unto the east by the word of the Holy One, rejoicing in the remembrance of God.
How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that publisheth salvation;
That saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!
The glorious majesty of the Lord shall endure for ever: The Lord shall rejoice in all His works.
The earth shall tremble at the look of Him: if He do but touch the hills, they shall smoke.
I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will praise my God while I have my being.
- Hymn—O Thou Who Camest from Above (Hamburg)
From the Gregorian Chant
Arr. by Lowell Mason
- Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Songs of Praises

Arr. G. J. Jones

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah, Pilgrim thro' this barren land:
I am weak, but Thou art mighty; Hold me with Thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more.
O Savior, Precious Savior, Whom yet unseen we love,
O Name of might and favor, All other names above,
We worship Thee, we bless Thee, To Thee alone we sing;
We praise Thee, and confess Thee, Our glorious Lord and King.
Songs of praises, I will ever give to Thee.

GALLERY

"Greek Potters & Painters," a study-exhibition, will open Tuesday, October 28, in the Woman's College Library Gallery.

Greek potters, in their jars and cups, enclosed space planned for particular uses, as did architects in their buildings, and modeled form plastically as did sculptors in clay. The painters, accenting these special shapes with figure compositions from life and from the myths, tried out increasingly free techniques and led the way in anatomical studies while sculptors were still struggling toward fifth-century expertness with stone. Potter and painter often signed their work jointly; both were held in equal esteem as creative designers.

RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, and a String Quartet, composed of Dorothy and Edgar Alden, Violinists, Julia W. Mueller, Violist, and Ernst Peschel, Cellist, will give a recital in the University Chapel Sunday afternoon, November 2, at 4:00 o'clock.

The program follows:

George Frederic Handel (1685-1759) Concerto in G Major, Number 1 Andante

Handel wrote sixteen concertos for organ and small orchestra. These concertos are usually played as organ solos, the simple orchestral parts being transcribed. The solo organ part is identified by using a separate manual.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791) Three Sonatas for Organ and Strings
No. 1 in E Flat Major (K 67)
No. 5 in F Major (K 145)
No. 4 in D Major (K 144)

The name of Mozart is seldom associated with the organ. Yet, for several years the composer occupied a post as organist in the Salzburg Cathedral.

These sonatas were first performed by the Court Orchestra in Salzburg Cathedral with Mozart at the organ. All are one movement in length, and the more developed examples are symphonic in effect.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) Choral Prelude
We All Believe in One God, Creator

This work (familarly called the Giant) is treated as a fugue. The first phrase of the chorale melody is taken as the theme. Bach symbolizes truth by introducing a firm and forceful movement in the bass which punctuates the chorale. This ascending bass evokes in the mind of the listener the steps of a giant.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart Four Sonatas for Organ and Strings
No. 9 in F Major (K 244)
No. 15 in C Major (K 336)
No. 10 in D Major (K 245)
No. 13 in C Major (K 328)

Mozart seems to have aimed specifically at a particular tone coloring and effect in these sonatas. He uses the strings in pitch, both below and above the organ itself, to form a miniature woodwind and string ensemble, thus binding all together.

Johann Sebastian Bach Toccata and Fugue in D minor

The famous D minor Toccata and Fugue was written while Bach was the court organist at Weimar. This was during an early period of his life, when he was concerned more with the composition of grand virtuoso pieces than with religious music. Bach probably performed this number on many of his concert trips.

Thurstone, Director of the Psychometric Laboratory of the University of North Carolina will address the graduate Psychology Colloquium on Wednesday, November 5 at 4:00 p.m. in Room 290, Bivins Hall. GALLERY

"Greek Potters & Painters," a study-exhibition, is on display in the Woman's College Library Gallery.

Greek potters, in their jars and cups, enclosed space planned for particular uses, as did architects in their buildings, and modeled form plastically as did sculptors in clay. The painters, accenting these special shapes with figure compositions from life and from the myths, tried out increasingly free techniques and led the way in anatomical studies while sculptors were still struggling toward fifth-century expertness with stone. Potter and painter often signed their work jointly; both were held in equal esteem as creative designers.

The order of services follows:

- Organ—Prelude and Fugue Pachelbel
- Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer Sibelius-Carroll
- The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud. Sun of my soul, I cry aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I

- Hymn—Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken (Austrian Hymn) Haydn
- Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)
- Anthem—What of the Night? Thompson
- Soloist: Mr. Robert Chambers, Baritone
- What of the night, O watchman? Turn to the East thine eyes,
And say is there any token Of the dawning in the skies?
Or do the shadows linger, Thy lips, are they sad and dumb,
With never a word of gladness That the tarrying morn is come?
Then answer'd the patient watchman From the mountain's lonely height,
To the waiting souls in the valley, I can see the breaking light;
There's a glow on the far horizon That is growing more wide and clear,
And soon shall the sun be flinging His splendours both far and near.
What of the night, O Watchman? Rises to Thee our cry;
Prophet divine of Naz'reth, Make to our hearts reply:
Over the earth's wild warfare Comes not a time more fair,
Swords into plough-shares heaten, Peace throned everywhere?
Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman, Let not thy spirit quail,
Strife shall not be eternal, Harmony shall prevail;
Battle clouds all shall scatter, Hatred shall be outcast.
Love's ever broad'ning glory Break on the world at last.
- Hymn—In Christ There Is No East or West (St. Peter) Reinagle
- Scripture—Isaiah 61

Offertory Anthem—Let Us Walk in the Light of the Lord
Wilson and O'Hara
Soloist: Mr. Ross Fogelman, Baritone
Let us walk in the light of the Lord. Let us live in accordance with His plan.
Let us work for a world-wide brotherhood, Look to Him as the friend of man,
Let all nations sing His praise, Seek the law of one accord,
Then let peace forever reign on eath, Let us walk in the light of the Lord.
Come ye, let us go up to the house of the Lord And He will teach us His ways and we will walk in His paths,
And He shall judge all nations, and shall rebuke many peoples, And they shall beat their swords into plow-sbares, And their spears into pruning hooks:
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, Neither shall they learn war any more.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee Beethoven-Sanders

Joyful, joyful, we adore Thee, God of glory, God of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before Thee Praising Thee their sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness. Fill us with the light of day.
All Thy works with joy surround Thee, Earth and heav'n's reflect Thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around Thee, Centre of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Blooming meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in Thee.
Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of loving, Ocean depth of happy rest!
Thou our Father, Christ our Brother, All who live in love are Thine:
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.
Mortals join the mighty chorus, Which the morning stars began,
Father love is reigning o'er us, Brother love binds man to man.
Ever singing march we onward, Victors in the midst of strife;
Joyful music lifts us sunward In the triumph song of life.

of great goodness,
The Lord is good to all, and His tender mercies are over all
His works.

Dr. Robert E. Cushman, Professor of Systematic Theology, Duke Divinity School, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, December 7, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "A Meditation on Advent."

The order of service follows:

1. The Crib; 2. The Angels; 3. The Shepherds;
4. The Holy Family
Divinum Mysterium Purvis

Call to Worship—Fanfare for Christmas Day Shaw
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Hymn—Ye Servants of God (Hanover) Croft

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Star of Courage Wolfe

Soloist: Mr. Nelson Jackson, Tenor

Once on the hills of Galilee A star arose to guide the Three;
And they were wise who followed far, The light of courage in a star!
For they were lost beside the sea That has its shores on Galilee,
And they were worn and they were chill, Who saw the heav'n with brightness fill!
And they were come from far to see, The Child of God in Galilee,
They followed in the holy light That went before them flaming white!
As on the hills of Galilee, A star once flamed to guide the Three,
They too are wise who follow far, With courage guiding like a star!

Hymn—O Come, O Come, Immanuel (Veni Immanuel) Ancient plain song

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—O Holy Night Adam
Soloist: Mr. Robert Melton, Tenor

O holy night! the stars are brightly shining, It is the night of the dear Saviour's birth.
Long lay the world in sin and error pining, Till He appear'd and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices, For yonder break a new and glorious morn,
Fall on your knees! O hear the angel voices! O night divine,
O night when Christ was born!
O night divine, O night, O night divine!
Led by the light of Faith serenely beaming, With glowing hearts by his cradle we stand.
So led by light of a star sweetly gleaming, Here came the wise men from the Orient land.
The King of Kings lay thus in lowly manger, In all our trials born to be our friend,
He knows our need! He guardeth us from danger, Behold your King! Before Him Lowly bend!
Behold your King, your King, before him bend!
Fall on your knees! O hear the angel voices! O night divine,
O night when Christ was born!
O night divine, O night, O night divine!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—The Shepherds' Story Dickinson

Soloists: Mr. Vernon Lassiter, Tenor; Mr. Wallace Kirby, Baritone; Mrs. A. E. Stanley, Soprano.

Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.

To Bethlem did they go The Shepherds three: To see whe'r it were so or no,

Whether Christ were born or no, to set men free.

Masters, in this hall, Hear ye news today Brought over sea,

And ever you I pray.

Then to Bethlem town did the Shepherds go, and in a sorry place

Heard the oxen low.

Therein did they see a sweet and goodly May, And a fair old man;

Upon the straw she lay.

And a little child On her arm had she "Wot ye who this is?"

Said the hinds to me.

Ox and ass him know kneeling on their knee: Wondrous joy had I

This little Babe to see.

Nowell! This is Christ the Lord, Masters, he ye glad! Christ-mas is come in, And no folk should be sad.

Hymn—It Came Upon the Midnight Clear (Carol)

Richard S. Willis

from The Coming of the King Dudley Buck

Incidental Trio: Mr. Thomas Crawford, Tenor;

Mr. Bruce Pate, Baritone; Mr. Wiley Earnhardt,

Bass.

We march thro' the cool of the night, And we halt when the day fiercely glows:

When darkness descends on our sight See the West a new radiance disclose!

O star in the Western sky, Thy ray in the East we descried!

And have followed where-e'er thou didst guide: Now must the Messiah he nigh.

Full many a weary league we've passed: Our journey's end is near at last Steadfast the path we will pursue, Judeas' land is now in view.

We three kings of Orient are: Melchior, Gaspar, and Baltasar:

Seeking him, who by yon sign, Must be born as Lord divine.

Royal gifts with us we bring: Well beseeching such a king.

Home and friends we've left behind, All, the wondrous Child to find.

Him by prophets long foretold Writ in mystic scrolls of old;

Fairest fruit of Judah's line, We would hail as Lord divine.

Then march on thro' the cool of the night: Still march on till the day fiercely glows,

For we know we are guided aright by the star which our course ever shows. March on!

NATIONAL TEACHER EXAMINATIONS

Less than two weeks remain for prospective teachers who plan to take the National Teacher Examinations at Duke University on February 14 to submit their completed applications for these tests to Educational Testing Service, Post Office Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey. Dr. Henry Weitz, Director, Bureau of Testing and Guidance has announced. Applications for the examinations must be forwarded so as to reach the Princeton office not later than January 16, Dr. Weitz advised.

Candidates for the Common Examination will report at 8:30 a.m. on February 14 and will begin taking the test at 9:00 a.m. The Common Examinations will be concluded at approximately 12:30 p.m., Dr. Weitz advised. Organ—Prelude and Fugue

Pachelbel

Call to Worship—Fill Your Hearts with Prayer

Kathryn Daniel

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.
Why so disquieted? Fill your hearts with prayer.
He who clothes the lilies fair Marks the sparrows' fall,
Though a thousand foes assail, God is over all.
Our spirits faint, Our hearts are fearful,
Have we forgotten our Savior reigns?
Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens, Have we forgotten
our Lord?
God has promised to deliver, God is watching over all.

Hymn—Lead on, O King Eternal (Laneashire)

Henry Smart

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Sing and Rejoice

Will James

Sing and rejoice to the Lord our God, And lift our hearts to the glory of the Lord our God,
For He shall reign in glory forever more, Sing and give thanks to God, And praise His name.
The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion, And slow to anger, And good to all.
His tender mercies are over all His works.

Hymn—God of Grace and God of Glory (CWM Rhondda)

John Hughes

Scripture—Matthew 7:15-23

Offertory Anthem—Jesus, Thou Joy of Loving Hearts

Edwin McNeill Poteat

Jesus, Thou joy of loving hearts, Thou Fount of life, Thou
Light of men,
From the best bliss that earth imparts We turn unfill'd to Thee again.
We taste Thee, O Thou living Bread, And long to feast upon Thee still;
We drink of Thee, the Fountain Head, And thirst our souls from Thee to fill.
Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood; Thou hearest them that on Thee call;
To those that seek Thee Thou art good, To those who find Thee all in all.
O Jesus, ever with us stay, Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away, Send o'er the world Thy holy Light,
Come, Thou, Joy of loving hearts, Ever with us stay; And chase the night of sin away.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Organ—Adagio Fiocco
 Passacaglia in C Minor Back
 Call to Worship—Fill Your Hearts with Prayer

Kathryn Daniel

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.
 Why so disquieted? Fill your hearts with prayer.
 He who clothes the lilies fair Marks the sparrows' fall,
 Though a thousand foes assail, God is over all.
 Our spirits faint, Our hearts are fearful,
 Have we forgotten our Savior reigns?
 Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens, Have we forgotten our Lord?

God has promised to deliver, God is watching over all.

Hymn—Stand Up, and Bless the Lord (St. Thomas)

Aaron Williams

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Brother James' Air Arr. Gordon Jacob

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want, He makes me down to lie
 In pastures green, He leadeth me The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again And me to walk doth make Within the Paths of Blessedness, E'en for His own Name's sake.
 Yea, though I pass thro' shadowed vale, Yet will I fear no ill;
 For Thou art with me, And Thy Rod and Staff me comfort still.
 My table Thou hast furnished in presence of my foes;
 My head with oil Thou dost anoint, And my cup overflows.
 Goodness and mercy all my days Will surely follow me;
 And in my Father's heart always My dwelling place shall be.
 And in my heart for evermore Thy dwelling place shall be.

Hymn—Make Me a Captive, Lord (Leominster)

Martin-Sullivan

Scripture—Philippians 2:1-11

Offertory Anthem—He, Watching over Israel from "Elijah" Mendelssohn

He, watching over Israel, slumbers not, nor sleeps;
 Shouldst thou, walking in grief, languish, He will quicken thee.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
 Praise Him, all creatures here below;
 Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
 Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Thy blessings, Father, upon this house of Thine, And all that pray therein!
Grace and peace from Thee, Our God, Father, and bless'd beloved Redeemer!
From varied haunts and callings come These pilgrims of the Quest Divine.
Theirs is the Soul of human kind The hope, the faith, the search for Thee.

Tenor Solo—Thy Rebuke Hath Broken His Heart
from "The Messiah" Handel
Soloist: Mr. William Kirkpatrick

Thy rebuke hath broken His heart; He is full of heaviness: He looked for some to have pity on Him, but there was no man, neither found He any to comfort Him.
Behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto His sorrow.

List! the cherubic host, in thousand choirs, Touch their immortal harps of golden wires,
With those just spirits that wear victorious palms, Singing everlastingly devout and Holy psalms,
And I heard the voice of harpers, harping with their harps, And they sang as it were a new song, before the throne, And no man could learn that song, but they which were redeemed.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital Sunday afternoon, March 1, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. This program is dedicated to Dr. Clarence Dickinson, distinguished organist, teacher, and composer who founded the School of Sacred Music at the Union Theological Seminary, New York, in 1928.

The program follows:

George Frederick Handel (1685-1759)

Prelude and Fugue in F minor

The totality of Handel's works, vast as that of Bach, is very modest in point of organ literature. The simplicity of the Prelude and Fugue in F minor reveals a dramatic contrast with the lively and more popular concertos which Handel produced.

Johann Kirnberger (1721-1783)

My Heart Is Filled with Longing

Many composers have used this lovely melody to express deep religious feeling. Kirnberger, a contemporary of Bach, treats it in simple form, using the unadorned melody in the soprano voice.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) Chorale Preludes

O Thou of God the Father

Come, Saviour of the Gentiles

These preludes, disclose Bach, the poet. The first chorale is bright, and the second chorale reveals his use of ornamentation to enhance the melody.

Johann Sebastian Bach Passacaglia and Fugue in C minor

Bach uses the theme of an earlier French organist, Andre Raison, in building his Passacaglia, which contains twenty variations used predominantly over a ground base. The double fugue which follows is so clearly defined that both voices can be heard as they are developed together. The theme of the Passacaglia is one of the voices in the fugue.

César Franck (1822-1890) Adagio from the Fantaisie in C

The great Belgium composer, César Franck, has been called the founder of the modern French school. Although his Three Chorales are his best known organ compositions, many of his shorter works are musical gems.

Louis Vierne (1870-1937)

Carillon

The Carillon is from a set of 24 Pieces en style libre which Vierne wrote for pedal piano or small organ. Vierne, the famous blind organist of Notre Dame, Paris, was a pupil of Franck.

Clarence Dickinson (1873-

) Reverie

Berceuse

The Storm King Symphony

for the Organ

Andante from the First Movement

Scherzo

Dr. Dickinson has given his own notes on the Storm King Symphony. He says, "This Symphony reflects impressions made on the composer by the varying moods of the stately 'Storm King' Mountain which stands guard, as it were, over the Highlands of the Hudson."

Professor Moore has pioneered for many years in developing techniques for solving field-configuration problems which do not yield readily to mathematical treatment. In this lecture he demonstrates how fluid flow within the streamline or vicious range, made visible by appropriate means, may be made to simulate fields occurring in electrostatic, magnetic, electric current, heat flow, chemical diffusion, water seepage, and other situations. He shows, further, how quantitative solutions to engineering problems can be obtained through this technique.

This program should prove of interest and value to all workers in pure and applied science, including mathematics. All who are interested are invited to attend.

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—A Mighty Fortress Is Our God
Luther-Mueller

A mighty fortress is our God, A bulwark never failing;
Our helper He, amid the flood Of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and pow'r are great, And armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.
Did we in our own strength confide, Our striving would be losing,
Were not the right Man on our side, The Man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He;
Lord Sabaoth, His name, From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"A Compass for Living"

Hymn—Awake, My Soul (Christmas) Arr. Handel

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Baritone Solo—The Publican Fan De Water
Mr. Wilson Angel

Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

The Pharisee stood and pray'd thus within himself:

"God, I thank Thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, unjust, or even as this publican,

I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess."

And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heav'n, but smote upon his breast, saying,

"God be merciful unto me, a sinner, O God, be merciful to me."

I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other,

For he that exalteth himself shall be abused; and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

"God be merciful unto me."

Hymn—O God, Our Help In Ages Past (St. Anne) Croft
Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Now Thank We All Our God Crüger-Mueller

Now thank we all our God With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, In whom His world rejoices;

Who from our mother's arms, Hath blest us on our way

With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today!
O may this bounteous God Thru all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace, And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills In this world and the next.
All glory be to God For all He hath created,
All us whom He so high Among His works enstated.
To praise Him while we live! And on His will attend,
Until we there arrive Where song shall have no end.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;

DR. W. ARTHUR KALE TO DELIVER SERMON AT THE UNIVERSITY SERVICE OF WORSHIP SUNDAY, APRIL 26, AT 11:00 A.M.

Dr. W. Arthur Kale, Professor, Duke Divinity School, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, April 26, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "Many Happy Returns."

The order of service follows:

- Organ—Adagio Franck
Chorale in A Minor Franck
- Call to Worship—Gloria Patri Palestrina
Gloria patri et filio, et spiritui sancto, Amen.
- Hymn—Come, Let Us Tune Our Loftiest Song (Duke Street) Hatton
- Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)
- Tenor Solo—King Ever Glorious from "The Crucifixion" Stainer

Mr. Robert Melton

King ever glorious! The dews of death are gath'ring round Thee, Upon the Cross Thy foes have bound Thee, Thy strength is gone!
Not in Thy Majesty, Robed in Heaven's supremest splendor;
But in weakness and surrender, Thou hangest here.
Who can he like Thee? Pilate, high in Zion dwelling! Rome, with arms the world compelling! Proud tho' they be, Thou art sublime! Far more awful in Thy weakness, More than kingly in Thy meekness, Thou Son of God.
Glory, and honor: Let the world divide and take them; Crown its monarchs and unmake them; But Thou wilt reign.
Here in abasement, crownless, poor, disrobed, and bleeding;
There in glory interceding; Thou art the King!

- Hymn—Faith of Our Fathers! (St. Catherine) Hemy-Walton
- Scripture—Acts 8:1-8

Offertory Anthem—Onward, Ye Peoples! Sibelius-Lefebvre
Onward, ye peoples, strive for the Light! The light that the Lord hath given us for our guide,
Who through murk and darkness of night Hath led us in safety unto our reward,
See how the fiery pillar is gleaming, Lighting our steps, when dark is the way.
And the Light of the World, cleaveth the gloomy blackness of night that else would engulf us.
See the cloudy pillar to shield us safe when the sun would blister us.

Born in Wales in 1914, Thomas is now generally recognized as one of the most gifted poets writing in English today. Writing as he does, in a new and at times baffling idiom, he must be heard to be fully understood. He has won a wide audience for himself and his poetry in the readings he has given.

Among his best known works are The World I Breathe, Deaths and Entrances, In Country Sleep, and the prose autobiographical sketches Portrait of the Artist as a Young Dog.

O Lord most holy, O Lord most mighty, O loving Father, Thee would we be praising always.
Help us to know Thee, know Thee and love Thee; Father, grant us Thy truth and grace;
Father, guide and defend us. Rule Thou our wilful hearts,
Keep Thine our wand'ring thoughts;
In all our sorrows, let us find our rest in Thee;
And in temptation's hour, Save through Thy mighty power,
Thine aid O send us; Hear us in mercy.
Show us Thy favor, So shall we live, and sing praise to Thee.

ORGAN RECITAL

Miss Nancy Hurst, Duke Senior, will present an organ recital in the University Chapel Sunday afternoon, May 17, at 4:00 o'clock. Miss Hurst has studied organ at Duke and has attended summer sessions at the Organ Institute, Andover, Massachusetts, and Syracuse University.

The complete program follows:

Johann Pachelbel (1653-1706) Christmas Chorale

"Vom Himmel hoch da komm' ich her"

Johann Pachelbel, eminent organist, composer, and teacher, numbered among his pupils Christoph Bach, who was the older brother and teacher of Johann Sebastian Bach. In this chorale setting, the well-known melody is first heard in the bass line supporting an introductory prelude. It forms the fugue subject in the second section of the piece and is finally declaimed in a toccata-like closing section.

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707)

Fugue

The works of Buxtehude mark the climax of North German organ music in the seventeenth century. It was to hear him play that the young J. S. Bach is reported to have walked forty miles. This fugue is often referred to as the gigue fugue because of the likeness in character of its theme to the gigue dance tunes.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) Organ Chorale

"Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme"

This chorale was transcribed for the organ by Bach himself from its original setting for tenor voice, accompanied by strings, in his cantata of the same name. The cantata is a musical setting of Philip Nicolai's hymn which joyously sings of the union between Christ and the true believers, his church.

Johann Sebastian Bach

Toccata, Adagio, and Fugue
in C Major

This work was doubtless intended as a concert piece and used by Bach for recital purposes. The insertion of a slow movement between the prelude and the fugue was probably suggested by the Italian chamber music of the period.

Johannes Brahms

Chorale Prelude
"Blessed are ye faithful souls"

In May and June of the last year of his life, Brahms composed eleven chorale preludes. They were the only compositions by him issued posthumously. "Blessed are ye faithful souls" is characterized by the serenity and tender beauty which pervade each of these preludes.

William Klenz

Sonatina. 1953

William Klenz, violoncellist and composer, is a graduate of Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. He received his M.A. degree at the University of North Carolina, and has studied in Florence, Modena, and Bologna, Italy, and at the Conservatoire Nationale in Paris. As assistant professor in the department of Aesthetics, Art, and Music at Duke, he teaches courses in music theory, music history, and cello.

Jehan Alain

Litanies

Alain, a young French composer who was killed in World War II, prefaces the Litanies with these words:

When the Christian spirit in its distress no longer finds new words to implore the mercy of God, it repeats without end the same invocation with vehement faith. Reason attains its limit. Only faith continues its ascension.

THE REVEREND PROFESSOR JAMES T. CLELAND TO DELIVER SERMON AT UNIVERSITY SERVICE OF WORSHIP SUNDAY, MAY 24, AT 11:00 A.M.

The Reverend Professor James T. Cleland, Preacher to the University, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, May 24, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "May 24, 1738."

The order of service follows:

Organ—Pastorale Milhaud
Fantasia in G Minor Bach
I Call to Thee Lord Jesus Christ Bach

Call to Worship—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah) Max Spicker
Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts.
The heav'ns and the earth are full of His glory.

Hymn—O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing (Azmon) Gläser-Mason

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Sanctus from "St. Cecilia Mass" Gounod

Soloist: Mr. Tommy Crawford, Tenor

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.
Heav'n and earth are full of Thy glory.
Glory be to Thee, O Lord most High. Amen.

Hymn—O for a Heart to Praise My God (Belmont)
From William Gardiner's Sacred Melodies

Scripture—Acts 1:1-8; 2:1-12

Offertory Anthem—Ho! Everyone That Thirsteth Martin

Soloist: Mr. Robert Chambers, Bass-Baritone

Ho! ev'ry one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat.
Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread?
and your labor for that which satisfieth not?
Hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.
Incline your ear, and come unto me, hear, and your soul shall live.
Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.
Then ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing.
And all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.
Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.
Ho! ev'ry one that thirsteth, come ye, come to the waters. Then shall ye go out with joy.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"May 24, 1738"

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you; and give you peace,
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Sketch in F Minor Schumann
